

Highlights of a hot time in and the globe converged national Conference on s what some of them had to g was probably the best part of The time to talk to others from ld assisted in showing how our programs is and how different aintree Center for Business Innovation, of conference was] insights ance, Sweden, Israel, San Jose ator models. A unique and o learn and compare one's model practices around the world."

inNOVAcorp, Halifax, Nova Scotia, training sessions on Saturday g and well worth the time and ne increasing variety of old hands are extraordinary in , but I like seeing new ideas from lso."

land State Business Accelerator,

San Antonio

"I feel very fortunate to have received the NBIA scholarship that allowed me to experience the conference for the first time! Not only did [I] meet people and contacts from all over the world, [I] came away with valuable information to assist our incubator, our city and state."

—Julie Gustafson, Amoskeag Business Incubator, Manchester, N.H.

"For the Chilean Association of Incubation, the [NBIA] conference allows us to stay current on the state of the industry in the world, as well as successful experiences in new fields and learn from them to improve our work. In the same sense, the conference is for us a privileged opportunity to establish contacts with colleagues around the world and thus strengthen our cooperation networks in the future."

—Alvaro Bustos Torreblanca, president, ChileIncuba, Santiago, Chile

"Being a new start-up incubator, it was good to get some professional advice and experience. The Kitchen Forum was my favorite because I was able to share and learn from the experienced kitchen incubator managers and get their views of the do's and don'ts of the

